

VIDEOPERSIArt 3

Videoart Festival, Iran

A cura di Fereshteh Alamshah
dal 14 al 24 Gennaio 2016

Vernissage Giovedì 14 Gennaio 2016
H. 18.30 – 21.00

Quest'anno inizieremo la programmazione video con la selezione video della scorsa terza edizione di Videoartist, Festival e piattaforma di videoarte di Isfahan, dedicata alla produzione artistica iraniana, diretta da Fereshteh Alamshah.

Una delle poche occasioni per vedere l'ultima produzione di videoartisti iraniani a Milano, grazie alla cooperazione culturale con il centro sperimentale di Isfahan. Per l'occasione su VisualcontainerTV videoart web channel sarà presentata una ulteriore selezione proveniente dall'archivio video della piattaforma Videoartist, per completare la visione della produzione audiovisiva contemporanea iraniana.

About Videoartist, Iran

VideoArtist was established in March 2012, with the centrality of Isfahan as a cyberspace where video art works of Iranian artists are shown. It presents eternal and impressive works of creative artists from a noble country and a space to develop and expand video art and video artists' introduction.

"VideoArtist" is an online and permanent gallery in an unlimited cyberspace in which Iranian artists could present their artworks. This is an opportunity for communication among artists, curators, art experts, and critics, owners of galleries and museums who are interested in Iranian video art.

Individuals and groups visit the "VideoArtist", so this website tries to introduce video art in the society more than ever.

This website as a cyberspace holds video art festival every two years interval named "VideoArtist" to identify young and talented artists, create a relationship between experienced artists and those who are interested, holding festivals and exhibitions.

Holding educational workshops and specialty exhibitions in other cities and presenting video art works in public places are some other activities of this website. Also this website creates relationship with other foreign video artist groups around the world and presents their works in exhibitions of Iran, or holds exhibitions of Iranian video art works in other countries.

"VideoArtist" is an independent movement. Since the beginning of 2014, its activity is under the legal responsibility of the research Institute, "Sepano", with managing director by "Fereshte Alamshah".
